from bullet on-the-brain. No less than three of them have simultaneously hit upon Der Freischutz for forthcoming burlesques. Each of the three, too, is rather anxious to prove that 'twas he "spoke first." Mr. Byron's Prince of Wales' piece is called Der Freischutz; or, the Belle, the Bill, and the Ball. Mr. Burnand's piece is entitled Der Freischutz; or, A Good Cast for a Piece. The way in which they were harnessed was most curious. The pigs were simply tied to the pole of the cart, at the end of which were attached some truffles, slightly beyond their reach, and the swine, in their efforts to reach the savory article of lood, drew along the cart without the necessity of a whip having to be used,

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

[For Additional City Intelligence see Third Page.]

THE ELECTION-A HEAVY VOTE BEING CASI- FIE PROBABLE RESULT IN THE CITY.—It is seed on that we have enjoyed an election day in this city which has been so barren of lacidents as to day thus far. It was apprehended that there would be some dissatisfaction, it not serious trouble, on account of the change in the hour of opening and count of the change in the hour of opening and count of the change in the nour of opening and closing the polls, but everybody appears to be as good-natured as may be over the matter.

Leng before seven o'clock, the hour appointed for the opening of the polls under the new law nearly every polling boo h in the city was surrounded by an eager throng, anxiously awaiting the time. In many place, the crowd of anxious voters formed lines extending to conside able distances from the little, hole in the window at which each one was little,

siming
As is usual, the principal object; was to determine the character of the first vote cast. Each party, therefore struggled to get one of its own trusty adherents at the head of the line, and as soon as it was announced that Copper or Loyalty led off the list, the crowd would break forth injshouts or jeers, according to the political predilections of its various companents.

according to the political predilections of its various components.

The immense crowds of voters surrounding the polls is not the only evidence that the vote to be cast to-day will be perhaps heavier than ever before. A custom which in late years has alled somewhat into disuse is being revived in many quarters. The leaders of the two great parties are sending around the town their carriages, covered with placards, and gathering up the half and infirm, both in body and mind, to transport them to the point where their individual existence will tell something towards deciding the fate of the nation and of the "humoie" individual at its head.

At this writing it is, of course, impossible to give any reliable data on which to base a calculation of any reliable data on which to base a calculation of the result. But we see no reason whatever for changing the opinion which we have enertained from the first, which is that General Leary will go out of the city with a majority ranging somewhere between 12,000 and 15,000.

In our next edition we shall give a tabular state-ment of the vote in the various ward, up to the time of going to press, as far as it will be possible to obtain reliable returns. By that time it is expected that the result will be clearly indicated.

How the Ladies Voted .- While our nobe Republican friends were rolling up an immense majority for General Geary at the polls, our mothers, wives, daughters, sisters aunts, nieces, and cousins were quietly voting at home. They were voting in favor of using only Dobbins' Electric Soap, the greatest plessing of the age. We need not expetiate upon the merits of the supportance of the suppor need not expetiate upon the merits of the sapona-ceous compound here. Are they not fully recorded on the eighth pare of The Evening Iellesnaph to-day? There are so many respectable endorse-ments that we need rearcely mention our owe. We say, however, emphatically, that it is the best aricle known to the world for washing; that it is considered indispensable by every larly we know, and that its use is rapidly becoming universal. This is not surprising, when we remember that Dobbins' Electric Soap is manufactured from the very best materials, by experienced factors, according to mater als, by experienced factors, according to scientific principles.

Dobbins' Electric Soar does away with all superfluous manipulations in washing clothes. With very little rubbing, articles ire thoroughly cleaned. It thus saves lapor and economizes in the natter of apparel.

Donnins' Electric Soar is cheap. A pound of it costs but hitle more than ordinary brown soap, yet actual test shows that one pound of Don-BINS' ELECTRIC SOAP goes as far as ten pounds of any other supernaceous preparation.

Look at these beautiful pictures on the cighth page of this paper to day Read the certificates, and then try Dobbins' Electric Soar, which you can buy at any grocery store

A WATCH THIEF .- A colored man named A WATCH THEER.—A colored man named John A. Evans was arrested this moraing for the larceny or a watch the property of Mr. A. Meyers. Mr. Meyers testifies that he was standing in South street, below Eighth street, when the prisoner accosted his and asked if he had a watch. Mr. Meyers replied that he had and handed it to him. The would be thief put it in his pocket, and coolly walked off.

house and wanted to self the watch. He sister had

Mr. Sparks was elected Treasurer, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the declination of Mr. Townsend, from whom a communication was received, in which he stated his heart was with the cause in which the Club was engaged, but he was not able to discharge the duties of the office as they should be discharge the duties of the office as they should

The proceedings were purely of a business character, and of no interest to the public at large. At the conclusion of the meeting General Robeson was called on, and responded in a neat little speech in his usual style, bringing forth the plaudits of his

A SUPPOSED RIVER PIRATE.-About 7 o'cleck this morning, as Officers Carrow and Leavitt were passing Swanson and South streets, their atten-tion was a tracted to a furniture car in charge of a tion was a tracted to a furniture-car in charge of a man named John Sullivan. Their suspicions being arouses by his actions, he was arrested, and the car was found to be full of rope and rigging, iron, and pieces of ornamental brass work. Sullivan could not give a clear title to the property, and told quite a twisted tale as to the manner in which it had come into his possession. The property had evidently been taken from a river steamer. It is now at the Second District Police Station, awaiting the identification of the owners.

THE ELECTION - BULLY FOR THE "BULLS."—At the weeting of the Board of Brokers this morning, it entered into the head of some par-ticular "buh" to see how high Heister Clymer could the hoisted. So be proposed an informal vote on the Gubernational question, which was taken accordingly. Those who favored the election of Generat Geary held up their hands, and the contrary likewise; the result standing 60 to 12. A motion to make the vote unanimous was carried, amid great on housiam. en husiasm.

THE ELECTION—"BILLY" MCMULLIN'S PREEROGATIVE.—This morning our reporter was despatched in the direction of the notorious "Fourth Ward," to see how went the day in the dominions of 'Billy" McMulin. As usual on such occasions, that dignitary was discovered wielding a rather despoils away.

At the Eighth Division polling house, where "Billy" ho ds his headquarters, our rejecter put to an officer the appropriate inquiry:—

'Is anything up?"

Its was at once informed that the privilege of depositing a vote had been denied a man who was known to be a Republican

Our reporter hunted up the party thus aggrieved, and received from him the following statement:—

"I was going to vote the Republican ticket, and Billy McMultin put his lip in, and said if I didn't shut up he would hit me in the mouth.

"I said to him:—'You are around your own doors now; if it wasn't so I'd give it to you. I would like to know by what right Billy McMultin interieres in those things?"

The gentleman may well be indigmant. But his indignation was all to no purpose, as at the latest advices his ballot was still in his pocket.

THE ELECTION—"EVERYTHING LOVELY."

As we go to press, we have heard of but few disturbances, and these have been of the most trivial character. Here and there a few boisterous indiviousls who have imbibed a little too much of the liqu dity popularly termed 'rot gut," have attempted to create a disturbance, either by interfering with the voting of others, or by attempting to do the thing "double" themselves.

But the large and energetic police force on duty throughout the city have checked all these embryo rows by summarily taking their abettors into custady, it is to be hoped that the latter half of the day will be as decent and orderly as has been the first balf.

CHILD INJURED .- This morning, a child named John Ryan, only three years old, was knocked down by a horae at Eleventh and Orden attests. It was seriously hurt, being bruised very severely about the legs—The child was taken to the home of its parents, No. 808 Inquirer street.

BALTIMORE, October 9.-Reports are in circulation of an intention on the part of Governor Swann to remove the Police Commissioners, on the ground of alleged official misconduct in making arrangements for the municipal election. The report occasions much discussion, the Republicans maintaining that the Commissioners have not violated the law, and that the Governor cannot exercise such authority until the Commissioners shall have been first indicte I. tried, and convicted of unlawful conduct, as they are placed in office by the Legislature, and not appointed by the Governor. The conservative maintain that he can remove them, the same as any other State officers.

CHAMPION TELEGRAPH MATCH. Burns, of Worcester, the Winner-Extra-ordinary Manipulation.

From the Boston Traveller, October 5. A third match for the telegraph sending champ'on-hip of New York and New England, between Messrs. P. H. Burns, of Worcester, and W. E. Kettles, of Fall River took place at 4 o'clock yesterday atternoon, on the Western Union Company's I ness from New York to Boston—Mr Kettles working from the former and the champion from his own Since the last trial between the two gentlemen, the interest of the public at large in these matches, and of telegraphers especially, has been largely augmented, so much so in fact, that considerable sams are known to have changed hands on the The 250 words appointed to be sent, were fixed

The 250 words appointed to be sent, were fixed upon only vesterday moraine, a lowing little or no chance for practice, otherwise the race of speed would have been higher; but as it was, the time made probably equals the best on record.

Mr. Rettles ed. and, as on a former occasion, was interrupted in his first essay. At the conclusion of his record and more successful attempt, the time was announced to six minutes and twenty-seven seconds.

Mr. Burns fo lowed, completing his task in six minu es, seven seconds. By two of the three judges the champion's writing was considered plainer and better than his opnonent's, while their colleague invoiced Mr. Kettles' in the respects. They were avoied hir Actives in the respects. They were anited, however, in the opinion that the display on either side was every way better than any previous one that had come within their experience. Mr. Buins was adjudged victor, and as such is to hold the champion key until a better man presents him-

In order that the non-telegraphing public may the better appreciate the skill displayed as above recorded, it may be well to say that the 250 words transmitted in 367 seconds confained 1158 letters, or more than three to be sent per second. To form these letters it was necessary to make 2592 down strokes of graduated length, with the key, and as many up strokes. In every second, therefore, Mr. Burns performed a trifle over fourteen distinct motions of his hand. The sunctuation marks are not taken into this calculation, although they were introduced by each contestant.

When we consider that is writing in the Morse alphabet a well-defined space or pause must be made, not only between the words but also between the letters, and even in some of the lotters themselves, all of which is so much time lost, the rapidity of Mr. Euras' manipulation partakes of the marvellous.

It is thought imprebable that Mr. Kettles will again appear as a contestant for the championship, at least for the present. Other aspirants may, however, present themselves.

It is rumored that already negotiations are making for a match between the "champion telegraph sender" of this section and a Southern operator of some repute. In order that the non-telegraphing public may
